

the great NEEDabag? party!

Who? Everyone! Bring a friend!

When? 10am -2pm, Saturday 31st March 2007

Where? St George's Market, Belfast

What's Happening? A celebration of the demise of the plastic bag, including stories, quizzes, music, film, bag exhibition, arts & crafts and a chance to meet Baglady!

What should I bring? Bring your own reusable bag, cups and containers to shop for fresh, organic food and local produce with local stallholders

St George's Market is located opposite Belfast Waterfront Hall and the Hilton Hotel in Oxford Street. Please come using sustainable transport!

If unable to attend, send us a message of support by:
email: contact@bagladyproductions.org
text: 07870849097

Baglady Productions exists to identify and promote work that restores our damaged environment, gets rid of rubbish, and reduces harmful practices. Through Baglady appearances, film, the web and other media, our campaigns give publicity to good practice, and highlight those things that need to change.